

Nate's Story

Just a few short years ago I owned a graphics company, opened a bar and was trying to hold my family together the best that I knew how. My life was marked by my accomplishments, and I tried to keep it all under control. My outward appearance seemed successful, yet everything was falling apart. Anger and resentment set in at home and I felt a void in my heart. On February 13, 2010 I gave my life to Christ and He changed everything. As I laid down my businesses and plans to Him, He lifted the weight of performance on my life. He redeemed my relationship with my now wife Sarci. He is teaching me how to be a caring father. And, He re-oriented my heart to be a caring person for His people. I love it!

My Church Role

I get to spend the best parts of my days leading the Online Web Campus at Quest Community Church. Since Easter weekend, my team and I have lead 8 people to Christ from around the globe. They were from New Jersey, Nebraska, California, Greece, Georgetown, Elizabethtown, Louisville, and Lexington. The team has also encouraged people to seek help for addictions, divorce and depression. As I grow in leadership, so much more is possible.

The Web Site

The NateFX.com web site uses two major components that help share my story with people from around the world and right here in Kentucky. The blog use pieces of my story, reflections on services, photos and videos to proclaim the gospel. And, the Good Life Sessions dj mixes are a regular podcast which elevates the spirit of love through positive positive dance music.

Romans 10:14 NLT

But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them? 15 And how will anyone go and tell them without being sent? That is why the Scriptures say, "How beautiful are the feet of messengers who bring good news!"
